I am very grateful to the brilliant academics and my fellow students who helped me along the way - what a journey!”

Igor Soloshenko

Self-funded student from Russia

“Generally speaking, always keep in mind that the program is worth the money you are paying, so use every possibility that WINTOUR gives you. My advice for you would be to draft future plans in advance to wisely choose internships and master thesis after.”

Ani Zurabashvili

Self-funded student from Georgia

“My passion has always been to share my cultural experiences with others, and the WINTOUR program seemed like the perfect fit to start my journey as a Wine Tourism communicator...

Coming from a country where wine is not yet considered a cultural product, my aim is to make it as accessible as possible by using online content with a simple and streamlined language. Join me!”
